

Tsurucon 2017 Volunteer Contract

Information & Conditions

As a Tsurucon volunteer, you are both a member of the community and a representative of the organization in the eyes of the public. As a member of the community, it is your right to have fun and enjoy events in which you are comfortable with, and equally so, as a representative of Tsurucon, it is your responsibility to set the standard for patrons and abide by the rules and regulations of the convention.

Our executive team aims to ensure that your volunteer experience is respectful, fun and safe. This contract is a part of our commitment to our relationship with you -- ensuring that it is a positive one, not only during this convention, but for as long as we maintain this volunteer relationship.

The following list contains your commitments to Tsurucon as a volunteer:

- i. You will abide by the Tsurucon policies outlined in the official policy, as well as the volunteer training.
- ii. You will represent Tsurucon in a positive and professional manner.
- iii. You will fulfill your duties to the best of your ability.

The following list contains Tsurucon's commitment to you as a volunteer:

- i. Tsurucon will ensure your safety and aim to provide a safe environment for you to volunteer in, to the best of its ability.
- ii. Tsurucon will make time to hear out and acknowledge any questions, concerns, or feedback you may have.
- iii. Tsurucon will aim to provide a fun and enjoyable volunteer experience for you.

Agreement

By signing this contract, I, _____, understand and acknowledge my volunteer commitments as outlined above in this contract, and in turn will act accordingly to ensure that these commitments are met. I understand that our volunteer relationship may be terminated at any time by Tsurucon if I am deemed to not be meeting these responsibilities. I understand Tsurucon's commitments to me, and if for whatever reason I feel that Tsurucon is not successfully meeting these requirements, that my concerns will be heard and addressed by the executive team.

I acknowledge that Tsurucon will take reasonable precaution to prevent any injuries that may occur, however I acknowledge that accidents do happen and I release, waive, and discharge Tsurucon from all liability to me for any loss or damage to myself or my property and any claim or demands on account of personal or property injury during the times in which I am volunteering.
